

VIRTUAL VISITING GARDENS

We have been receiving so many incredible photos that we decided to share with you this special July issue of “Virtual Visiting Gardens”. We hope you enjoy this edition as much as we do!

Wishing you a happy and healthy summer!

*Sincerely yours,
Christine & Carrie*

Lisa Bertles' Garden in Palm Beach

Wendy Bingham's Garden in Westhamptom, NY

Joanie Van der Grift's Garden in Palm Beach

Alison Sieving's Garden in Palm Beach

Christine Aylward's Orchids

A purchase about 10 years ago at the Orchid Society of the Palm Beaches (OSPB), this cattleya has grown happily and has been divided a few times.

A purchase of a seedling at the OSPBs quite a few years ago, this cattleya has grown happily ever since I attached it to a tree.

Brassidium, a gift from a friend about 10 years. It has been divided a few times.

About 8 years ago, Ann Vanneck gave the hort committee a demonstration on attaching orchids on barks. Every attendee received an orchid. This cattleya blooms annually, with the color more intense each year.

Polly Reed's Blooms

Ali Reynolds' Vegetable Garden & Orchids

Ali wrote: "I had the most spectacular orchids blooming in my garden. I would also like to give credit to Vicky Reynolds (her mother-in-law ) for the orchids as she comes to my house and works on the orchids every week"

Thuja Garden in Northeast Harbor, Maine
Hearty thanks to Joanie Van der Grift who provided these photographs

Here is the video to finish our special July edition.

*“Parrot-izing in Palm Beach
In Carrie Murray’s Garden”*

Please click HERE to see the video.