

VIRTUAL VISITING GARDENS

*We decided to surprise you with a final edition, three gardens from up north —
two members and one special guest!*

*Happy Holidays and hoping to see everyone soon!
Sincerely yours,
Christine & Carrie*

Kim Frisbie, Nantucket, MA

Katie Pressly, Kennebunkport, ME,

Katie writes: Our home is the third oldest in Kennebunkport, built by a ship captain for one of his daughters. His name was Daniel Walker. We are thrilled to be The Cup and Saucer home's stewards.

Daniel Walker House- 1784

Pumpkins in the Port

Summer driveway entrance

Summer hydrangea in the side yard

Front step walk in progress

English wall work- completed by a REAL English craftsman

Bill Beers, Fosters Point, Maine

Bill's property "Blue Ledge" is in Foster Point. It is 36 miles northeast of Portland midway between Brunswick (Bowdoin College) and Bath which is the sister city to Bath England and dubbed the "City of Ships". It is the home of the Maine Maritime Museum.

