*Thank you, Christina,
for sharing your beautiful pictures with us.*

Enjoy!

Christina writes: “ here is an interesting tidbit. For the mechanics of the flower arches, they used a felt hanging closet accessory with multiple pockets, like one that would hold shoes. And they were attached to the top of the arch with a hanger!.. And the lilies were just enormous! ”

CONGRATULATIONS!

Coming up: Linda Soper's trip to Italy. Please stay tuned...
