

Summer Snaps

We present you with Sarah Benitz's pictures from her recent trip to England.

*This edition we will cover a special garden in Somerset designed by Piet Oudolf

Thank you, Sarah!

Sarah writes: “I’ve just come back from England. We were in Wiltshire, Somerset and Dorset”...
“...a garden in Somerset at a Farm shop, cafe and Art Gallery called Hauser & Wirth. The garden is designed by Piet Oudolf. He is a very interesting designer, and this is a lovely example of his work on a smaller scale. He did the high line in NY.”

Editor's notes: Piet also designed the Laurie Garden in Chicago's Millennium Park.

If you have not seen the documentary "Five Seasons: The Gardens of Piet Oudolf" (2017), please do. You will thoroughly enjoyed it. Here is the link to the 2 minute movie trailer:
