A Private Garden

Rockefeller Greenhouse

Joanie writes: “The Rockefeller Greenhouse is actually called McAlpin Farm in Seal Harbor where things are grown for the Rockefeller Garden.”

The Rockefeller Garden was created between 1926 and 1930 by Abby Aldrich Rockefeller and noted garden designer Beatrix Farrand. With the 2017 bequest from Mr. David Rockefeller, the Land & Garden Preserve took ownership and responsibility for the garden.

As we conclude this year's VVG, we whole-heartedly thank everybody who submitted photographs. Your encouraging emails with thoughtful feedback have always been deeply appreciated.
